

CECILIA M. SANDOVAL

Principal, The Sandoval Group

Cecilia M. Sandoval brings to her work more than thirty years of experience in the fields of education, public administration, nonprofit management, strategic planning, philanthropy and community service. She has first-hand knowledge of the dynamics of multiethnic communities and is recognized as an experienced facilitator, trainer, and management consultant. As Principal of The Sandoval Group, she supports efforts that build a sense of community, sustain children and families in positive environments and enhance an appreciation for diversity and collaboration.

Sandoval was founder and chief executive of a non-profit organization, served for six years as Senior Vice President for United Way of Los Angeles and has been a member of numerous local and national nonprofit boards and public sector commissions. For the past seven years she has been an Instructor in nonprofit management at the community college level and is currently a member of the Professional Advisory Board of the University of Judaism MBA Program for Nonprofit Management.

A native of Los Angeles, Sandoval earned a BA at Marymount College in Los Angeles (now Loyola Marymount University), completed graduate studies in Spanish Letters at the Universidad Iberoamericana in Mexico City, advanced studies in Business Administration at California State University, Los Angeles and has a Certificate in Management Effectiveness from the University of Southern California.
